

Financial Services Guide

1. What is a Financial Services Guide?

This Financial Services Guide ("FSG") is an important document to help you understand and decide if you wish to use the financial services we are able to offer you.

It provides you with information about World First Pty Ltd ("WorldFirst, us, our, we") and the services we provide. Its purpose is to educate you, before we provide a financial service, on matters including:

- who we are and how we can be contacted;
- what services and products we are authorised to provide you;
- how we (and any other relevant parties) are paid; and
- who to contact if you have a complaint.

Additionally, it explains your rights as a client, any charges for which you will be liable, and the mechanisms we will use to resolve any complaint you might have against us.

When we make a recommendation for you to acquire a particular financial product or offer to arrange the issue of a financial product to you, we will also provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS). The PDS contains information about the product to assist you in making an informed decision about that product. It will outline relevant terms, significant risks (where such exist), and fees and charges associated with the product.

If we do provide you with any personal advice, we will provide you with a written Statement of Advice (SOA). The SOA contains our advice and the reasons for it, as well as other relevant information, to assist you in making an informed decision about the various products and strategies that are relevant to you.

If we provide you with further personal advice, after the initial advice, you may request a record of the further advice that is provided to you (if you haven't already been provided with it). You can request the record of the further advice within a period of seven years of it being given, by contacting us using the details provided on page 3.

If we provide you with general advice, then it will not take into account your needs, financial situation or objectives, and you should consider your circumstances before choosing to act on the advice. You should also take all reasonable steps to understand the potential outcomes of the transactions we offer. Additionally, we advise that you read the relevant Product Disclosure Statement before making a decision.

We have arrangements in place to maintain adequate professional indemnity insurance as required by section 912B of the Corporations Act 2001 (the Act). This insurance provides cover for claims made against us and our representatives/ employees including claims in relation to the conduct of representatives/employees who no longer work for us but who did so at the time of the relevant conduct.

World First UK Limited is our parent company. World First Group is a subsidiary of Ant Financial.

2. Who will be providing the Financial Services to you?

The Licensee

WorldFirst is the holder of the Australian Financial Services Licence (AFS Licence Number: 331945 and ABN 42 132 368 971) and is responsible for the financial product advice that its representatives provide to you and the dealing which its representatives do on WorldFirst's behalf. WorldFirst authorises, and is also responsible for the content and distribution of this FSG.

You can instruct us to provide you with our services by:

- a) visiting one of our branches
- b) contacting us via the internet; or
- c) contacting us via telephone.

Our contact details are at the back of this document.

3. On whose behalf are we acting when we provide our services to you?

As we are the product issuer, we are acting on our own behalf when we provide the services and not on your behalf.

4. What services and products are we authorised to provide to you?

WorldFirst is authorised to give you general and personal advice in relation to "non-cash payment products", and "foreign exchange contracts". Put simply, this involves advising you about different types of money transfer or currency exchange services we offer, including:

- Spot FX contracts
- Forward FX contracts

WorldFirst is also authorised to deal in relation to those same products. This means that we can help you use our service fully and fill out the forms and undertake and complete the transactions for you.

WorldFirst is also authorised to "make a market" for foreign exchange contracts. This allows us to quote market prices to you.

In providing our service, other financial issues may arise, such as how to invest money, or taxation issues. However, we are not authorised to provide advice relating to those financial issues, or any other issues except those explained above. You should seek specific advice from the appropriate professionals which may include, a financial adviser who holds an Australian Financial Services License, if these issues are relevant to your objectives.

If you have any further questions about how WorldFirst is able to assist you, please contact us.

5. What fees and commissions are payable to WorldFirst?

We earn income on the margin between the wholesale cost of currency, and the cost which we offer the currency to you. The margin that is charged generally ranges between 0.1% and 1% per transaction. The size of the margin will depend on the current interest rates, the availability of the currency you are buying or selling, market volatility and the value of the transaction.

Additional margin may be applied to forward transactions and will be agreed with you up front and clearly displayed at the point of booking the transaction. We may also apply a margin (%) fee to collect certain currencies into your virtual accounts, based on the source of those funds. This fee will generally range between 0-0.5%.

Other banks that receive your funds or act as an intermediary may charge you fees which are often unknown or out of the control of WorldFirst.

Fees will be charged for most payments.

Our fee structure is based on the destination currency and location of the beneficiary. For payments made domestically in locally currency, such as a USD payment to a US based beneficiary, the fee will be USD$2.50. For payments made internationally, such as a USD payment to Hong Kong (China), the fee will be USD$10. Fees vary by currency and are charged in the destination currency.

The above fee structure will apply to all clients unless otherwise stated/agreed with WorldFirst or if you have previously made non-standard arrangements with your account manager. Fees and/or margins apply to same currency transactions. Fees and/or margins charged may vary on weekends and/or public holidays to account for potential exchange rate fluctuations. If we provide you with personal advice, we will supply you with more information about how we are remunerated at that time.

If we do not provide you with personal advice, you may request further information of our remuneration details within a reasonable time from receiving this document.

By using or continuing to use our services, you agree that:

- All fees and charges received by WorldFirst as described in this FSG (other than third party fees and charges) are a benefit given to WorldFirst by you, in exchange for the dealing services provided by WorldFirst.

- WorldFirst do not charge volume-based or asset-based fees for any advice we provide unless we agree a fee with you beforehand.
- You understand, consent to, authorise and direct WorldFirst to charge you in this way.
